

Nancy V. Cline, RDH, MPH

Nancy received her Bachelor of Science degree in Dental Hygiene from the University of California, San Francisco Medical Center and her Master of Public Health degree from the University of California, Berkeley. She taught dental hygiene and public health at the University of Puerto Rico and Louisiana State University School of Dentistry. She served as the director of the dental hygiene program at LSU for 10 years before moving to Texas. She served as President of the Puerto Rico Dental Hygienists' Association, the Louisiana Dental Hygienists' Association and the Texas Dental Hygienists' Association and became interested in TxOHC during her tenure as TDHA president. Nancy and her husband of 51 years live on a small ranch outside Blanco, Texas, where they have longhorn pets, three miniature donkeys and a big, white dog. In addition to her dental public health interests Nancy volunteers and serves on the board of the Blanco Library.
