

Matthew Thompson is currently the Director of Financial Monitoring and Contract Compliance at Every Body Texas. Matthew works with Every Body Texas's network of Title X clinics to ensure granted funds are being spent appropriately and we are following federal requirements. He approaches this work by supporting administrators and clinic staff to be good stewards of our funding and to ensure that the clients seeking services have access to the high-quality care they deserve.

Matthew, has a JD from the University of Houston as well as his black belt in Lean Six Sigma.